

HOW DOES USER CHOICE FUNDING (UCF) WORK?

1.

You choose the qualification you want to study – See eligibility requirements on the following page

2.

You and your employer come to an agreement about your training – they must agree to you attending the sessions and allow time for you to complete the coursework

3.

You and your employer sign an ACT Training Contract and Training Plan organised by MEGT (Australia) Ltd. and CIT Solutions

4.

Pay your contribution to the course

5.

You undertake and complete your studies and submit all of the required assessments

6.

You graduate with a nationally recognised qualification.
